

uproot tree

i'm tired but cannot sleep lyin' in bed with open eyes i'm lookin' into - darkness thinkin' of better times i often dream about him and in my dreams - he's still alive!
i'm wakin' up with a smilin' face but after seconds I know it was only a dream! a dream!
sometimes I feel - like an uproot tree
all alone and no way to live anymore!
the only thing that I can do
is lie here and wait for...?
i think that it happened yesterday it's hard to talk about it is anybody out there in this world who can tell me why?!
it has been like a terrible dream, oh my god!
sometimes I feel like an uproot tree
all alone and no way to live anymore!
is lie here and wait for...?
in those days I didn't know anything about my luck i kicked it with my feet but now I think it would be better
if it happened to me...

the pretersensual death

predictions say, existence of humanity will end - in the year 2000 term of the eagle leads off all life on earth will be extinguished... humanity will be destroyed and something unknown will appear... last breath of world is even present humanity's too blind to recognize last sign will be a pestilence only a few will survive... pretersensual becomes flesh and blood god and devil will face each other there'll be a last violent struggle and only one is able to win...
evil has been tryin' for a long time to fight god and humanity is supporting it how you can imagine easily evil has become very huge... it's all the same what you will do in a few years it will be trivial too what you've done you better do your things right now
'cause there's nothing else that you can do so fuck off and live your life!

stereotypes

world is going to be inhuman cupidity rules humanity
robots are being breed
rage rains over the world...
education of frustrated stereotypes we're not allowed to have a place for emotions and opinions...
why don't you avoid such kind of awful life???
why don't you defend against this nasty life???
open your eyes, it's five to 12
otherwise you are going to die by your own frustration!!! we can't do anything without aversion we are only influenced by progress and makin' profits!
why don't you avoid such kind of awful life?
why don't you defend against this nasty life?
i don't wanna live such life,
i can see no future
in this kind of devastating, fuckin', wrecked life!

this red turned rose

she ´s sitting near me in the tube her body is immaculate
I feel addicted to her
gave her a rose
she noticed it was a black she took the rose out of my hand looked in my eyes and understood that she ´s the one who needs the end a thorn that turns water into red others need her air to breathe this into red turned rose shows her body
it was immaculate
she was doomed - doomed to death...
